NOTES FOR AUTHORS

1.   Preliminary remarks

We would like to state explicitly some of the rules of the academic reviewing: If you have close personal or professional ties with the author(s) or editor(s) of the book to be reviewed and your professional distance is or might be impaired, we must insist that you refrain from reviewing the publication. Even less acceptable to established academic ethical standards would be a review if you were in any way involved in the publication process. The editorial board of COMPARATIV relies on your open and honest evaluation of your impartiality. Nevertheless, the editorial board reserves the right to withhold reviews in critical cases.

2. GENERAL INFORMATION
LENGTH	Your review should not exceed 1000–1200 words or 8000-10000 characters (including footnotes). We reserve our right to shorten – or even refuse, if necessary – longer reviews. Collective reviews may warrant more space.
READABILITY	You can enhance your review's online readability by writing short sentences and organizing the text in paragraphs; indicate paragraphs by a blank line.
BIBLIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION	In each review, the full bibliographic information of the reviewed book must be specified; it consists of: author (or: editor), title, subtitle, series with number of volume, publishing place, publisher, year, number of pages, ISBN, price.
INFORMATION ABOUT THE REVIEWER	Aside from your name (without academic titles) and email address, the author's line should contain the institution you are affiliated with or your place of residence. Examples (fictitious): Ulrich Meyer, Historisches Seminar, Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg; E-Mail: umeyer@uni-freiburg.de or: Dagmar Koch, Berlin; E-Mail: dagmar.koch@web.de
LANGUAGE	Reviews may be submitted in German, English or French.
SPELLING	- Please do not use special characters such as $, %, €. Differentiate between hyphens and dashes. To ensure a general academic understanding, we kindly ask you to avoid abbreviations. - Please give an institution's full name when first mentioning it and add in parentheses the abbreviation that you will use throughout the following text.

3. FORMAL INFORMATION

Paragraphs	Paragraphs are indicated by a blank line.
Hyphenation	Please do not use in any case the hyphenation option in your word processor.
Quotations	Concise quotes from the reviewed publication should be marked through quotation marks and the page number in round parentheses, e.g. (p. 6) or (pp. 6-12, here: p. 8) or (p.6, note 4). Indicate omissions with square brackets: […]. Quotes from and references to other than the reviewed publication are to be cited in footnotes.
Highlighting	Please avoid italicising and bold type. If you want to indicate words as italicised, mark them with _Imperium Romanum_. If you want to use bold type, mark the respective text with __Introduction__. These types can only be indicated in the web version, not in the email version.
Footnotes	Please do not use your text processing programme's function for creating footnotes, but number the notes in square brackets and add the references at the end of the text. Insert the numbers before commas[1], directly after „quotations"[2] and after full stops.[3] The references should be included under the headline "Notes" at the end of the text. Leave one blank line between text and notes, but no blank lines between headline and first note or between the notes. When first referencing a title, include full bibliographic data; for further references, only use the author's name and a shortened title. If you wish to include several references in one note, use semicolons to separate them.
Footnotes	All notes end with a full stop. Only give one place of publication for each title. Back reference Meier, Short Title, p. 45 Monographs Avi-Yonah, Michel, Geschichte der Juden im Zeitalter des Talmud in den Tagen von Rom und Byzanz, Berlin 1962. more than one author or editor King, Anthony; Henig, Martin (Eds.), The Roman West in the Third Century, Oxford 1981. Journal articles Abramenko, Andrik, Die Wirtschaftskrise des 3.
